

Beep and Sniff's Big Garden Day

מאת irit kogan

In the middle of a sunny garden lived a small robot named Beep.

He had shiny buttons on his tummy and a light on his head
.that went glow, glow, glow

Beep had a very best friend. His name was Sniff. Sniff was a puppy with long, floppy ears and a tail that went wag-wag-
!wag

One morning, Beep saw something bright hiding in the tall grass. He leaned over to look. It was a big, round, red
!ball

Sniff ran over to help. He bumped the ball with his wet nose. "Woof!" said Sniff. He was .ready to play

Beep gave the ball a gentle push.
Sniff gave the ball a happy nudge. Roll, roll, roll! The ball .went across the garden

The ball rolled right into a little blue puddle. Splash! Water flew high into the air. Sniff squeezed
.his eyes shut

Beep reached out with his metal finger. He touched the surface of the cold, wet water. "Beepboop!" he said. He liked the .ripples

Sniff stepped out of the puddle and gave his fur a giant shake.
Shake, shake, shake! Beep was covered in tiny, sparkly water
.drops

The sun was warm and the grass was soft. Beep and Sniff were very tired. They sat down together under a big tree for a
.long, happy nap
